

Bishop Elijah Arok is taking assembly through the Book of Common Prayers .

Sharing the scripture in Nyumanzi, northern Uganda during New Year's celebrations' 2018.

South Sudan's Anglican Choir ministry in our churches: Choirs in the early Christian church were modeled on choirs that led synagogue worship. With the advent of more multi-layered music, choirs introduce new music to our congregation. In addition to leading the hymns, songs, and service music, a choir will often lead the psalms.

South Sudanese Anglican missionary team in Imvepi refugee camp in the Arua district, northern Uganda

Newly arrived refugees from South Sudan wait to register at the Kuluba reception center in Koboko district, northwest Uganda.

Opening Prayer for a Church Service: Thank God that He has brought each of us safely to this place. We gladly surrender our lives to Him in worship and praise. As we gather we remember those who are not with us today - For those who are sick we ask for healing.

Explore Nyumanzi Refugee Camp, Building and more!

Bishop Elijah Arok's sharing the Gospel with Uganda national guard at the forest pathway: Budongo Forest is a moist, semi-deciduous tropical rain forest located at the top of the Albertine Rift in Uganda.

Gospel to all lands: We took a carriage into the heart of the residence in Nile River