

The person preaching this requiem is the Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III who pastors Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago. It is the church President Barak Obama attended before he became President.

This presentation stimulates many thoughts and feelings.

1. What feelings do you have after watching this video?
2. What new insights did you get from watching this video?
3. Did viewing this create thoughts of doing something about racism? What were your ideas?
4. Would you recommend viewing this to others you know?