

EVERYDAY MICRO ACTIONS

WITH THE HOPE OF EMPOWERING AND ENCOURAGING OUR CHURCH FAMILY DURING THESE TERRIFYING AND DIFFICULT TIMES, THE ANTI-RACISM COMMITTEE IS SHARING 7 IDEAS FOR RESISTANCE EVERY FIRST AND THIRD SUNDAY SERVICE. THESE ARE EVERYDAY MICRO ACTIONS WE CAN TAKE THAT COLLECTIVELY MAKE A HUGE IMPACT IN OUR COMMUNITY.

01

Attend Peace Lutheran Church's free docuseries featuring incredible and thought-provoking films that explore identity, power, and social justice. Each film will also include special guests to facilitate a community discussion.

The last documentary, Israelism, which follows two Jewish young adults who explore everything they know about Israel and Palestine, will be shown next Wednesday, June 4th at 6:30pm with a Q&A led by the Tacoma chapter of Jewish Voice for Peace.

02

Join Jewish Voice for Peace, Tacoma chapter, at the June 10th City of Tacoma Council meeting to present the open letter they had drafted objecting to Mayor Victoria Woodard's recent all-expenses trip to Israel, despite the ongoing genocide of Palestinians and Israel ending all humanitarian aid going into Gaza. It is not too late to sign it! Review the letter attached and add your signature. If you are able, join JVP at the council meeting.

03

Celebrate Pride Month by joining the opening reception for the newest art exhibition at Seattle's Tidelands, IndigiQueer, on Friday, June 6th from 5-8pm. This exhibit features "14 Indigenous artists exploring the vibrant intersections of Indigeneity and Queerness. Use the attached QR code to learn more about the exhibit and to RSVP for the event.

Can't make it that Friday? The IndigiQueer exhibit lasts through July 13th, 2025.

04

Join the "No Kings Mass Protest" organized by Seattle Indivisible on Saturday, June 14th at noon at Cal Anderson Park in Seattle. "No Kings is a national day of action and mass mobilization in response to increasing authoritarian excesses and corruption" from this administration. To learn more, follow Seattle Indivisible on social media.

05

Learn what you can and cannot do if you become witness to ICE activity. The Washington Immigrant Solidarity Network (WAISN) shared a "bystander and observer guidelines" flyer that details actions like your legal right to film officers if you are in a public place and what to document. The flyer is available in English and in Spanish, and is easily printable. Please share!

06

With the increase of anti-trans bills and violence against the LGBTQIA+ community, safety has become even more important especially for trans, nonbinary and gender-nonconforming (TNBGNC) people. TransLash Media, a Black trans-led independent news source, put together a safety guide for trans, nonbinary, and gender-nonconforming people taking part in Pride throughout the country.

Even if you are not part of the community, save this document and share with your trans, nonbinary, and gender-nonconforming loved ones.

07

Save the date for Tacoma's Pride Festival on Saturday, July 12th at Wright Park. This annual community event honors and celebrates the LGBTQIA+ community throughout all of Puget Sound. Looking to donate or volunteer? Check out their website to learn how you can support this incredible day.
