

EVERYDAY MICRO ACTIONS

WITH THE HOPE OF EMPOWERING AND ENCOURAGING OUR CHURCH FAMILY DURING THESE TERRIFYING AND DIFFICULT TIMES, THE ANTI-RACISM COMMITTEE IS SHARING 7 IDEAS FOR RESISTANCE EVERY FIRST AND THIRD SUNDAY SERVICE. THESE ARE EVERYDAY MICRO ACTIONS WE CAN TAKE THAT COLLECTIVELY MAKE A HUGE IMPACT IN OUR COMMUNITY.

TAKE ACTION: City Council member John Hines, with support from other Council members, is pushing for an expanded camping ban – fast tracking it through the City Council in an uncharacteristic manner given the significant impact it will have on our unhoused neighbors. The City Council will vote on this on Oct. 21. We are calling on the community to advocate for our unhoused neighbors by testifying in person or writing letters to our council members. To learn more, follow Tacoma4All, Tacoma Pierce County Coalition to End Homelessness, the Tacoma Black Panther Party, and the Conversation 253.

DONATE: Western Alaska has been hit with severe storms, including Typhoon Halong. Much of the coast, which has a large indigenous population, is under water and many indigenous villages are completely wiped away. With Trump cuts and a government shutdown, Western Alaska is in dire need.

Please consider donating to the disaster response fund, linked here.
