

EVERYDAY MICRO ACTIONS

WITH THE HOPE OF EMPOWERING AND ENCOURAGING OUR CHURCH FAMILY DURING THESE TERRIFYING AND DIFFICULT TIMES, THE ANTI-RACISM COMMITTEE IS SHARING 7 IDEAS FOR RESISTANCE EVERY FIRST AND THIRD SUNDAY SERVICE. THESE ARE EVERYDAY MICRO ACTIONS WE CAN TAKE THAT COLLECTIVELY MAKE A HUGE IMPACT IN OUR COMMUNITY.

01

URGENT NEED: The Tacoma Mutual Aid Collective, in partnership with 253 Harm Redux, needs to restock the supplies and necessary items (like hygiene products) they distribute to our houseless neighbors. The social media post has a deadline of April 3, but please still consider donating funds or looking at their supply wish list, accessible through this LINK or on the Tacoma Mutual Aid Instagram page. To learn more about how to contribute, scan the QR code.

02

ENGAGE & LEARN: Youth are leading the path toward justice and liberation! Join a youth-led and youth-centered in-person and virtual "Students Against ICE" town hall meeting on Thursday, April 16 at 4pm at UWT's Milgard Hall. Join the conversation, share ideas, hear how our students are fighting back against immigration terror, and learn more ways youth can organize in their communities. To learn more about the event or to register virtually, check out the attached link.

03

RALLY & TAKE ACTION: Join Climate Alliance South Sound on Saturday, April 18 at 1pm at Point Defiance Park for an Earth Day march and rally. In the midst of the administration's actions eroding climate protections, the community is pushing back and demanding a community-controlled climate commission. To learn more about Climate Alliance South Sound or what a community-controlled climate commission means, scan the attached QR code.

04

ENGAGE & TAKE ACTION: Parks Tacoma is holding a special election on Tuesday, April 28 for Prop 1, which is asking voters to renew bond funding that would allow Parks Tacoma to invest in 100+ projects all around Tacoma. Before you vote, take time to learn what this bond entails, reach out to Parks commissioners if you have questions, and talk to your neighbors about the different ways this bond can impact your community. And if you feel called to, reach out to Julia Kagochi to find out how you can volunteer in support of this bond.

05

ENGAGE & TAKE ACTION: A few months ago, we heard about changes the Tacoma City Council made on the Tenant Bill of Rights that are impacting local renters and neighbors. Tacoma 4 All is now organizing a new movement, SAFE Homes for All – a ballot initiative to win stable and affordable housing through fair enforcement. This initiative demands accountability for lawbreakers, the right for tenants to organize, education and transparency, and protections for public funds. If you feel called to participate, check out upcoming volunteer opportunities to ensure this initiative comes to life.

06

DONATE & SUPPORT: The end of March marked Trans Day of Visibility, a day to raise awareness about and advocate for trans people. In the midst of ongoing attacks against trans neighbors and loved ones, it is even more important for the community of allies to fight for trans rights. This social media post lists out queer and trans-led organizations that you can donate to or support. Please consider making a meaningful contribution to one, two, or all of these organizations.

For more localized support, reach out to Rainbow Center, the Lavender Rights Project, and the Oasis Youth Center.

07

SHARE WITH YOUTH: Every young person deserves to have safe, fun and affirming spaces to be their full authentic selves! Do you have an LGBTQ+ and allied youth (14-24 years old) who want to have a fun night of dancing and joy? The Oasis Youth Center is hosting their annual Queer Prom on Saturday, April 18. Share the attached QR code for interested youth!
